WHAT IS ADELAIDE FRINGE?

- We were born over 60 years ago (although we don't look a day over 25) and we've grown up to become the Southern Hemisphere's largest open access arts festival!
- Adelaide Fringe completely takes over the CBD, surrounding suburbs and even some regional areas of South Australia for 31 magical days and nights each year. Lock in our 2021 dates: 19 Feb – 21 March.
- Featuring 1200+ events, over 6500 artists, 471 venue spaces and over 3.5 million attendees in 2020.

WHAT DOES 'OPEN ACCESS' MEAN?!

We're an open access festival which means artists, presenters and venues all register to participate in Adelaide Fringe, you choose us! We don't select or curate the program or book artists or shows for you.

Anyone and everyone can be involved in Adelaide Fringe... it doesn't matter how big or small your venue is, whether you've got four walls made from bricks and mortar or you're a completely temporary space, you can register to be involved. Alleyway, pub, concert hall, library, laundromat or double decker bus – YOU can create Fringe magic in whatever shape or form your venue takes on!

"You need to find your own niche and have something unique and special to offer. Rather than be just another "good venue", I think it is important to find an image that makes you different.

Your policy, programming, presentation need to offer something other venues do not have. You need to be diverse but also have a "thread" that goes through the vision."

Have bands that play at your venue regularly, or do you exhibit visual artwork on your walls? Why not turn these into Fringe events during festival season!

"You don't need to spend a million bucks to setup a venue. If your vibe is good and your fees are reasonable, there will always be artists looking for somewhere to try out a new idea, or take a risk – and that's precisely what Adelaide Fringe is all about."

Tim Watts, General Manager & Venues Manager at The Mill

"Working with artists to create a Fringe hub outside of the CBD has enabled our community, and people further afield, access to high quality and meaningful cultural experiences closer to their homes. The MCC came alive with activity like it had never seen before. The 59 events, workshops and markets almost doubled the 2019 effort.

The community was not daunted by the variety of shows with ticket sales doubling to just above 4000 and about 12,600 people attending one of the many diverse and engaging cultural experiences."

HOW TO REGISTER – AVR DETAILS

1. Sign up to AVR (Artist and Venue Registration Platform) avr.adelaidefringe.com.au
2. Make yourself familiar with our 'Venue Registrations Process' document. This will outline all the information you require before you start your registration. This is available online on the AVR Resources page.
3. Familiarise yourself with the AVR, have a play, see what other resources are available for you.
4. During your registration, make sure you opt in to our 'Venue Finder' tool. This will help artists find your venue and help arrange direct bookings.
5. Make sure you are upfront with what you can deliver. In the registration you will need to detail the logistics and technical specifications of your venue, so don't promise anything you cannot deliver.
6. Think about what audiences you might be able to share or what marketing you can offer to promote events in your venue. Be sure to share this with prospective artists – digital billboards, newsletters and social media support from a venue can be very attractive.
7. Once you are registered, it does not mean you are an official Fringe venue. You still need to book an event/artist in your venue to be classified as an Official Adelaide Fringe Venue. So do not wait for artists to come to you, put yourself out there!
8. Don't forget, Venue Registrations are FREE!
9. Make sure you check out our library of AVR Resources! From 'how to' information on marketing, ticketing and accessibility to budget templates and sustainability info!

"Our main reason for participating in Adelaide Fringe is that it is our best value for money marketing opportunity of the entire year.

We have found that some events are difficult to market outside of Fringe, but the Fringe helps us to tap into niche markets and find our audience and sometimes even sell these events out. For some reason there are people in the community that see an arts event as more legitimate if it is part of the Adelaide Fringe. We have used this to our advantage."

"Put every detail of your hire arrangement in writing before the season commences. This includes financial settlements, cancellation, technical provisions, performance space dimensions and backstage policies.

Artists will want to know what you are providing and what their responsibilities are in as much detail as possible. It will ensure expectations are met, money is saved and both parties are protected in the partnership."

Joanne Hartsone, Producer, Artist, Venue Manager at Black Box Theatre
