

Important: Rider Spoke

Hi.

Thank you for booking to take part in Rider Spoke.

Here is everything you need to know before the show:

- The start and end point for Rider Spoke are at Front Lawns at South Australian Museum. Please arrive, ready to begin, at the time stated on your ticket.
- To take part, you are provided with a smartphone that mounts on your handlebars.
- If you're planning to take part on your own bike please have it with you when you arrive.
- Your safety is our priority. You must wear a helmet to take part in Rider Spoke by bicycle. We have a limited number of helmets and safety equipment available for you to borrow.
- On arrival, please help us keep you and our team safe by maintaining social distancing, and following social distancing guidance on site.

If you have specific access requirements for Rider Spoke, please read our Access FAQs and contact Box Office (on 08 8100 2000 or via email to buzz@adelaidefringe.com.au) so they can pass on your requirements to us. Our team will be happy to assist you.

To read the general terms and conditions for taking part in Rider Spoke, please click here.

Don't forget to share your experience of Rider Spoke with us online by using #RiderSpoke. We look forward to seeing you at Front Lawns at South Australian Museum.

Best wishes

Blast Theory