

THEME RUNDOWN

LOVE/HATE 18th FEBRUARY

I hate you;,I love you; I hate that I love you. This is a night of performance dedicated to that funny thing called love.

Maybe you didn't have a date this past Valentine's Day and are looking for a way to wallow in self-pity. Or perhaps you maybe in love yourself? Either way, this is the theme for you.

NOW/THEN 19th FEBRUARY

Ya like Jazz? Then this is a night you'll be sure to enjoy. Even with COVID, a night of smoky jazz tunes will make you feel like you're in the corner of an underground bar in New York City. The entertainment ranges from the jazz standards of yester-year, to jazz arrangements of songs you may have heard on the drive here.

STAGE/SCREEN (Sing A Long) 20th FEBRUARY

Musical theatre is an art-form that transcends the way in which it reaches its audience. Whether you've gotten dressed up for a night at the theatre, or gotten under a blanket and switched on the TV, musicals will always be a source of joy that changes lives. At this performance, you will hear songs from your favourite musicals from both on-stage and on-screen. Make sure you're warmed up to belt along to these classic tunes!

HOME/AWAY 8th MARCH

I still call Australia home – as do the composers of our 'Home/Away' category. Regardless of whether these composers are creating right here at home, or finding success with their material across the pond, every piece of music performed at this performance will have been written by Aussie composers – which we think is bloody alright.

HE/SHE/THEY 9th MARCH

At this performance, our performers will be singing songs sung by artists/characters whose gender identity differs from their own. For too long, the term 'gender' has been used to push a dichotomy of boy/girl that puts people into boxes that may not represent who they are as human beings. So... we're shaking that up!

GUILTY/PLEASURE 10th MARCH

We all have those embarrassing and cringey songs from musicals that we secretly scream at the top of lungs in the car.

Whether it's 'Mamma Mia!', 'Heathers' or 'Grease', we all have things to be ashamed of (just kidding... kind of). This is the night to free yourself from all of it!
